

PEACE IN SIGHT.

Kentucky Belligerents Arrange a Settlement.

BECKHAM IS TO GOVERN.

Immunity From Arrest Was Granted Taylor and Associates.

LEGISLATORS TO LEAVE LONDON.

Republican Members to Be Withdrawn From That Place—They Are Not to Fillbuster and Thus Prevent the Agreement From Being Ratified—Arrangement to Be Held in Abeyance Until Monday—This Agreement Was Reached at a Conference Held in Louisville—Assurances Given That Taylor Will Accept the Terms.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 6.—If the agreement drawn up at the conference of representatives of the Republican and Democratic administrations, held at the Galt House, in this city, is accepted and carried out, the strife which has rent Kentucky from end to end for the past few weeks will be ended.

An agreement was finally reached shortly after midnight, and arrangements were immediately made to have it drawn up and signed. This was slow work, however, and it was after 2 o'clock when the conferees separated. The Democrats gained nearly every point they contended for, and the Republican representatives, Lieutenant Governor John Marshall, General Dan Lindsay and Attorney David Fairleigh, gave assurances that the agreement would be accepted by Governor Taylor today.

The agreement provides that in order to leave no question as to the title, William Goebel and J. C. W. Beckham to the offices of governor and lieutenant governor respectively, the general assembly shall pass a resolution in joint assembly validating the acts on that subject, since the legislature has been prevented by troops from holding its regular sessions at Frankfort.

As soon as the legislature does this, Beckham's title to the office of governor is not to be questioned. The Democrats grant immunity to Governor Taylor and his associates from prosecution for treason, usurpation of office or contempt of court for what has been done since the shooting of Goebel. These matters are to be held in abeyance until next Monday.

The Republican legislature is to be withdrawn from London immediately, and no filibustering or other attempt of this character is to be resorted to by the Republicans to obstruct the carrying out of this agreement in the legislature.

The Democrats suggested that in view of the great crowds expected in Frankfort during the Goebel funeral ceremonies the soldiers should be withdrawn. The Republicans asked that an adequate guard be left to protect Governor Taylor and his associates.

The Democratic people first were inclined to press their demands to the limit, requiring the withdrawal of troops from the state buildings at Frankfort, the recognition of Beckham as governor, without any further action by the legislature on the reports of the contest boards by which Goebel and Beckham were declared to have been elected; after which the main points in controversy were to be adjudicated by due process of law. Something of sentiment moved the Democrats to make the claim for the recognition of the legality of the actions of the legislature since Governor Taylor issued his proclamation adjourning that body to meet at London, Ky. They wish to establish the title of William Goebel as governor at the time of his death.

The Republicans showed no disposition to make such extreme concessions. They have elected to stand on the legality of Governor Taylor's proclamation, though the abatement to some extent of their belligerency of the authorities at Frankfort was reflected in their arguments. This had been expected since the release of Alonzo Walker, after Governor Taylor's military officers had refused to recognize a writ of habeas corpus in his case and the intimidation thrown out that the military guard placed upon the state buildings at Frankfort on Feb. 2 would not be so vigorously enforced hereafter.

The re-establishment of the civil authority and the suppression of the military seemed the most promising ground to work upon, and the efforts of the conferees were turned in this direction. Lieutenant Governor John Marshall and Attorney David Fairleigh came down from Frankfort and spent some time in consultation with legal advisers of the Republicans. Later they were joined by General Dan Lindsay and T. H. Edelin, who came from Frankfort; Judge Robert Barr and Postmaster T. H. Baker, of this city. These six represented Governor Taylor at this conference.

For the Democrats there were present Senator-elect Blackburn, ex-Governor J. B. McCreary, Judge Robert J. Breckinridge, Democratic candidate for Attorney General, and Colonel Phil Thompson. Immediately upon arrival in Louisville, each delegation withdrew for private conference.

After separate conferences the joint conference was begun. Attorney Fairleigh, of the Republicans, who was understood to be the direct representative of Governor Taylor, and Senator Blackburn, of the Democrats, were the only members of the legislature to meet here today. The anti-Goebel Democrat was among the arrivals yesterday.

The members of the senate and house held separate and secret caucuses last night in the circuit court room, the senators occupying one side of the room. In the house caucuses the following committee on resolutions on Governor Goebel's death was appointed: Representatives Bethurum, Jarnagin, Burkamp, Read and Haswell.

WIDE DETOUR BY BULLER.

Sir William H. Greene Says This Is What He May Be Doing—Other Operations.

LOUISVILLE, Feb. 6.—4 a. m.—Military opinion in London continues to assume, from very slender materials, that General Buller is again throwing his army against the Boer works. A retired General, Sir William Henry Green, whose distinguished career gives weight to his opinion, thinks that General Buller, with 25,000 men, is making a wide detour to the west and north in order to avoid the roughest parts of the country. As General Buller must have some thousands of wagons, Sir William points out that the advance would necessarily be slow. No authentic word is at hand, save that the war office reaffirmed orally the

MACRUM IS AT HOME.

Ex-Consul at Pretoria Reached East Liverpool, O., Today.

IS STILL MYSTERIOUSLY SILENT.

Even When He Visited the State Department, at Washington, He Failed to Tell the Officials Why He Asked Permission to Leave His Post.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Feb. 6.—Ex-Consul Macrum arrived here today.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—After a call by Congressman Taylor, on Assistant Secretary Hill, Mr. Macrum, ex-consul at Pretoria, made a call and had a conference with Hill, Secretary Hay having left the department for the day.

His stay was short, only about 30 minutes perhaps, and he left Dr. Hill as much in the dark as he had been before as to Mr. Macrum's motive for leaving Pretoria. Nor did it develop whether or not Mr. Macrum was the bearer of any message from Kruger. He did not mention the subject to Dr. Hill. He said he was tired, very tired; he had been five weeks on the sea and road traveling constantly and begged for time in which to prepare himself to report. He said nothing as to the reasons for appearing in Washington, but asked that he be permitted to go to his home in East Liverpool, O., for a few days to attend to some matters of business, which were pressing, and to rest.

Dr. Hill had no objection. Mr. Macrum promised to be back here soon, perhaps before the end of the present week, and said he then would make a formal report to the state department. Leaving Dr. Hill, Mr. Macrum went to the consular bureau and secured the assent of Acting Chief Carr to a postponement of the settlement of his accounts until his next visit to Washington. To Mr. Carr, also, Mr. Macrum said nothing to throw light on his motives.

As he left the state department he assured the newspaper men who stopped him that if he had any statement at all to make to the press (and he was not sure that he would have), he probably would make it public upon his return to Washington.

Some of the persons here who were familiar with his appearance when he first went out to the Transvaal, said that he looked very much broken, and lacked the vim that formerly characterized him.

AN AMERICAN SHOT AT PONCE.

Arrested by Porto Rican Police For Leading a Dog, and Then Assaulted.

PONCE, P. R., Feb. 6.—During a band concert on the Plaza Principal, native policemen attempted to arrest Joseph S. Bigelow, Jr., of Boston, on account of leading a dog. Joseph S. Barkley, a deputy United States marshal, conducted Bigelow to the jail. In the searching room, it is alleged, the native police made an attack on Bigelow, who was entirely unarmed. Finally Policeman Arismendi shot Bigelow in the cheek and then fled. The guards at the outer door permitted him to escape, but stopped Felix A. McCarthy, an American, who was hotly pursuing Arismendi.

He attended communion services the day before death in the church where he was once pastor. Rev. Hassler was born in Mercersburg, this county, in 1824.

Iron and Steel Stocks Continued Very Prominent—National Steel Heads the List.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—The stock market was subjected to a notable process of digestion yesterday, and came through the ordeal remarkably well.

Stocks which were leaders in activity and strength during the movement of last week were heavily sold to take profits. The profit-taking was met by so considerable an outside demand that offerings were absorbed with little difficulty and without any material concession in prices being made necessary.

Upward movements in prices were easily achieved, and the speculative sentiment showed itself quick to respond to any new developments regarding special stocks. Thus a number of railroad stocks responded quickly and emphatically to returns of earnings for the fourth week in January, showing large increases over the high level of last year.

The iron and steel stocks continued very prominent, and the leadership here was shifted also, under the influence of realizing in American Steel and Wire and some others. The new leader of the group was National Steel, which was very heavily bought on floating reports of the enormous earnings for the past year to be shown by the forthcoming report. Reports of a similar kind have been unheeded for months past in Wall street, but Monday the stock shot up under their influence an extreme 3 1/2%.

Other members of the metal group closely allied by identity of ownership, moved in close sympathy. American Hoop and Tinplate are in this class. Republic Steel, the smelting stocks and Anaconda were also strong.

Speculators are inclined to discount to some extent the increase in the circulation provided for in the financial bill before congress, and in consequence ignore some of the indications of encroachment on the money supply on other accounts. The market closed active and strong at best prices for many stocks.

The bond market was irregular and not so active as of late. Total sales, par value, $3,708,500.

United States old 4s, new 4s and 5s advanced 1/4 in the bid price.

Harry Diddleback Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 6.—After an illness of less than a week, Harry Diddleback, known in local sporting and newspaper circles, died at his home in this city. Death was primarily due to a heavy cold, contracted last Monday night. This developed into erysipelas, which attacked the heart. Mr. Diddleback was 46 years old.

Hon. E. J. Phelps Better.

NEW HAVEN, Feb. 6.—The improvement in the condition of Hon. E. J. Phelps, which began to be manifested a few days ago, continues in a slight but very encouraging degree, and thus far no drawback has been experienced. Every succeeding day the outlook for his ultimate recovery is more assuring.
